

INITIAL REQUIREMENT DOCUMENT

Title of the project	Online course website (Non-interactive)
Stakeholders involved in capturing requirements	Teachers, project leaders & students
Techniques used for requirement capturing	Interviewing and Brainstorming
Name of the persons along with designations	Yash Gupta Varun Goyal Yuv Garg
Date	January, 2023
Version	1.0
Consolidated list of initial requirements: <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. The website should have a user registration and login system that allows teachers/learners to create an account and upload or access the course.2. The website should have a catalogue of available courses, search functionality to easily find and enroll in courses.3. The website should provide a roadmap for the completion of available courses.4. The website shall be able to generate login ID and password to the admin/instructor/students.5. Admin shall be able to manage course content and assessments.6. Instructor shall be able to upload as well as update the courses.7. The website should support a variety of multimedia content such as videos, readings, quizzes, and assessments to support the learning experience.8. The website shall be able to provide availability of a particular course.9. Students should be able to track their progress in each course, including completed lessons and assessments.10. The courses should be available for single user for a limited period.11. The website should provide an industry recognised certificate of completion for each course if completed within deadline.12. The website should have a feedback system for learners to rate the course and provide feedback to the instructor.13. The website should have a responsive design for viewing on mobile devices.14. The website should have appropriate security measures to protect user's data and prevent unauthorized access.15. The website should be designed to handle a large number of users.16. The website should have a user-friendly interface that is easy to navigate and understand.	